Welcome to Thessaloniki

Hello there,

Our course on BioEngineering will take place in the beautiful city of Thessaloniki from March 7th to March 16th, 2018.

So, what's the first thing you should read before coming here? THE SURVIVAL GUIDE!

We know, of course, that there are a lot of things on the Internet about how to survive in Thessaloniki.

HOWEVER, Local BEST Group of Thessaloniki has prepared for you the REAL survival guide, with all the tiny-miny-shiny details that you have to follow if you want to do it Greek style!

So, Survival Rule No1: Make yourself a Frappe, sit comfortably on your couch and continue reading while you take the first sip of Halara spirit!

If, at the end, you have questions, feel free to ask us whatever, whenever and wherever you want!

We are looking forward to meet you all!!!

How to get here:

By plane:

The Thessaloniki International Airport (SKG) is located 14 km away from Thessaloniki and has connections with most of the major European cities. You can take the bus No. 78 (or 78N during the night) . Buses depart every 30' and the trip lasts approximately 30'. The ticket costs €2.

By train:

You can reach Thessaloniki by daily connections with several European cities, like Belgrade, Sofia, Skopje. Also, you can take the train from Athens, the route is around 5,5h and the price 15-25€. There are web offers if you book your ticket online and on time. Check: trainose.gr

From the train station you can easily reach the city center using public transportation (bus). There are several buses going to the center (No 2,10,11,14,17 etc.), and the ticket costs 1€.

By bus:

Thessaloniki has bus connections with all close countries, such as Bulgaria, Romania, Serbia, Macedonia, Turkey etc.

You can check www.eurolines.com or <http://ktelmacedonia.gr/en/content/International-map.190/tid=190>

For the timetable of buses inside Greece (i.e. Athens - Thessaloniki)

Check:<http://ktelmacedonia.gr/en/>

To reach the city center from the bus station you can use several buses (No 12, 31, 78, 14 etc).
